Dear Fellow Resident:

It has been said that autumn arrives in early morning but that spring arrives at the close of a winter day. Well, spring is in the air and it is beckoning to us all. If you are looking for ways to enjoy the spring and summer seasons let this book be your guide. For within the pages of this book you will find that the City of White Plains provides ample instructional classes, community events, cultural affairs, live-theater, parades and festivals.

I am pleased to present the 2013 City of White Plains Spring/Summer Guide detailing programs offered through our Recreation and Parks Department, The White Plains Public Library, the Youth Bureau, the White Plains Performing Arts Center and our many community partners. This year's Guide contains information about several exciting new programs, including a City-Wide Swim Initiative called "Jump-in and Swim Month," with free swim lessons throughout the month of March, bike safety workshops, an outdoor yoga program at Liberty Park and Storywalk along the Jack Harrington White Plains Greenway. It also includes greater summer camp offerings in music, golf, biking and gymnastics, as well as theatrical productions of Hair and the Importance of Being Earnest.

I'm proud of the variety of opportunities we are able to offer to all of our residents and encourage you to enjoy as many as possible.

On a more serious note, I wanted to take this opportunity to direct you to the center pages of this book, where you will find important information for your use during an emergency. The severe storms that we have experienced over the past few years, especially Superstorm Sandy, have made it abundantly clear how vital it is that we be able to communicate with you during an emergency situation. The page entitled, "In Case of a Citywide Emergency" provides important information on how to access and receive emergency information, especially through our CodeRed Community Notification System. I urge you to keep this page handy. Thank you.

Best regards,
